B. toys Wooden Activity Toddler Walker recalled due to choking hazard

Last updated: 2022-03-16

Summary

- Product: B. toys Wooden Activity Toddler Walker - Walk 'n' Learn
- Issue: Consumer products - Choking hazard
- What to do: Immediately stop using the recalled toy and tighten the nuts and bolts to the wheel.

Affected products

This recall involves the B. toys Wooden Activity Toddler Walker - Walk 'n' Learn, wooden toddler walkers, models BX2008, BX2095 and BX2126. The product is a wooden activity walker with yellow sides, blue wheels and multicolored activity features on the front. Models BX2008 and BX2095 are similar and have an orange plastic backing. Model BX2126 has the same front but the back has been updated to only have a canvas base.

Issue

The nut securing the wheel can loosen, potentially causing the wheel, bolt and bearing to detach, releasing small parts and posing a choking hazard.

As of March 10 2022, the company has received 2 reports of incidents in Canada, and no reports of injuries. In the United States, the company has received 4 reports of incidents and no reports of injuries.

What you should do

Consumers should immediately stop using the recalled toy and use pliers or an adjustable wrench to check the tightness of the bolts and nuts securing the wheels. If needed, consumers can request a repair kit from Battat at no extra costs, which will include the tools and hardware needed to complete the repair.

For more information, consumers may contact Maison Battat Inc. at 1-844-963-2479 between 9:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. ET Monday through Friday, by email at recalls@battatco.com or by visiting the company's website at www.battatco.com and click on 'Recalls' located at the bottom of the page for more information.
